1673

CCCLXXII

the universitys Arms.

PRizes of Wines ſet and appointed by the Vice-Chancellor of the Univerſity of Oxford, according to which they are to be ſold rateably in all meaſures, from and after the twenty ſeventh day of this inſtant February 1673.

1. Canary Wines, Alecant, and Muſcadels, two ſhillings the Quart, and no more. Before for ſeverall yeares at 2s 2d the great incleasement of all: wch to make even money would either spend more or give & deceive & reft. This price was raised upon pretence of carriage.

2. Sack and Malagas, one ſhilling ten pence the Quart, and no more.

3. French Wines one ſhilling the Quart, and no more. Before for ſeverall yeares 1s. 1d.

4. Rheniſh Wines, one ſhilling ſix pence the Quart, and no more.

RA. BATHURST Vice-Chancel.

Feb. 19. 1673.